IntelliCentrics has the only platform for our members to streamline the drug and titer testing process in support of safety and compliance for you and your healthcare facilities, saving both time and money.

Quick Track is the only nationwide program to provide testing for both drug screening and titers as part of a comprehensive vendor compliance platform.

- Electronic verification of compliance eliminates the need for handling of paper documents
- Centralized support and specialized patient services
- In-house prescription authorization
- Full-time dedicated clinical staff
- Automatic transfer of results
- Over 2,000+ collection locations nationwide, including Quest Diagnostics

Most experts firmly believe titers are a more reliable indication of immunity than vaccination. Tests show the actual immune response, rather than just the attempt to cause an immune response by vaccination.

Anyone who has been impacted by a preventable disease will agree we all play a role in creating a safe and environment. Protect yourself, your patients, and your family members. Know if you are immune with the least amount of time and effort with the IntelliCentrics Quick Track.
